AURA (Anglican United Refugee Alliance)

Around the world, countless refugees have been forced to flee their homeland, their lives threatened by persecution. AURA brings refugees to Canada where they can get a fresh start under the care of faith communities. Working with the Diocese and the Toronto Conference of the United Church, AURA matches UN convention refugees with parishes and congregations.

They arrange for private sponsorship, facilitate the application process, advocate with the federal government and assist parishes with settlement issues. More than 50 parishes are
