

Resources (additional to the BAS) that may be helpful in planning a new service:

- (1) Iona Abbey Worship Book, (Wild Goose Publications, Glasgow, 2001)
- (2) Call to Worship: Liturgy, Music, Preaching and the Arts, Presbyterian church (U.S.A.), Geneva Press (published for year A, B or C, lectionary based)
- (3) The Kenyan Eucharistic Rite, Church of the Province of Kenya (on-line)
- (4) praisecharts.com an online source for score sheets, chord charts, lyric sheets etc. for contemporary and traditional worship music
- (5) CCLI premium level (gives you full musical score sheets, lead sheets, chord charts as well as updates on new contemporary worship music. with links to YouTube, so you can listen to the song)
- (6) Reaching Out Without Dumbing Down: A Theology of Worship for these Urgent Times, by Marva Dawn, (Eerdmans, 1995) a sound discussion of the theology of worship, and elements that should be included in worship
- (7) easyworship.com a software program with direct links to CCLI database that facilitates the projection of liturgy ... also available on YouTube are training tutorials for use of this program [an alternative program is called Media Shout]
- (8) Electro Systems Inc., Oakville ON, www.electrosystems.com specialists in Church sound, video and security systems if you need a sound system and/or projector installed, or training on the use of these

Judy Paulsen, Nov. 2012