

An Important Request for feedback from the Diocesan Clergy Remuneration Working Group

The Clergy Remuneration Working Group has been charged by Archbishop Colin Johnson to look at all aspects of clergy remuneration in the Diocese of Toronto and come up with recommendations that will improve the approach currently taken. We are seeking input from a number of quarters, the results of which will be very valuable to the working group in making recommendations for potential change to clergy remuneration. For this particular consultation, we are interested in receiving input from retired clergy.

We are requesting your participation in this focus group and ask that you attend a consultation on Thursday, October 19, 2017 from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. (a light lunch will be provided) at St. John Church, York Mills, 19 Don Ridge Drive, Toronto, Ontario M2P 1H3. Two members of the Clergy Remuneration Working Group will facilitate this session.

During the consultation, we hope you will share your wisdom, opinions and experiences related to current and future clergy remuneration practices. The feedback we receive will be taken into consideration by the Working Group as we move towards our recommendations.

Please register by Wednesday, October 11, 2017. Registration will be capped at the first 50 participants. Please email Janice Canning, Human Resources Manager at the Anglican Diocese of Toronto at jcanning@toronto.anglican.ca with your reply or telephone her at 416-363-6021, ext. 274 or 1-800-668-8932, ext. 274.

In Christ,
The Very Rev. Andrew Asbil, Chair of the Remuneration & Compensation Working Group
Ms. Suzanne Lawson, Chair of the Clergy Remuneration Working Group
