

Employment Opportunity - Church of St. Paul the Apostle, Rexdale (Anglican)

Children, Youth and Family Ministry Leader 20 hours per week

The Church of St. Paul the Apostle is seeking a ministry leader who will help to build and oversee a ministry of spiritual formation, fellowship and outreach with children/youth and young families. The individual will plan, develop and implement faith-based, age appropriate Christian centred programs for children and youth and support the spiritual formation and fellowship/community needs of families. We are a vibrant and growing church with many families and a large number of children. The successful person will be grounded in prayer, scripture, and the sacramental life of the church. They should be energetic and enthusiastic about working with young people and families and have a passion to disciple our young people, support Parish families, and contribute to the broader mission of the church through outreach beyond our doors. We are seeking a Christian leader who is a team player, and is passionate about the spiritual formation of children, youth and families. Areas of responsibility include Christian education and faith formation, planning and leading youth group meetings, special events and gatherings for children/youth/families. Part of the role is to reach out into the community to build relationships with an invitation to “come and see”.

The applicant should have a vital Christian faith, a passion for the spiritual growth of youth and families, youth and theological training/experience, good communication and planning skills, a good sense of humour, demonstrated leadership and effective interpersonal skills. Hours are flexible although some evening, Sunday and weekend work will be required. A competitive per hourly rate is offered. A detailed job description is available upon request. To apply, please send a full CV and cover letter to the attention of The Rev. Jo-Anne Billinger at the following email: stpaultheapostlerexdale@gmail.com.
