Social Justice and Advocacy Prayer Cycle, 2018-2019

This prayer cycle is intended to make it easier for us to share the good news about what so many Anglicans in the Diocese of Toronto are doing, through outreach and advocacy, to show God's love in the world, and also to uphold each other's ministries in prayer. We hope that it will inspire more individuals and parishes to become involved in advocacy and outreach, and to imagine new ways in which they can collaborate with each other, with churches of other denominations, in interfaith coalitions, and in partnerships with community groups and agencies.

This list was assembled from information gathered at the diocese's annual Outreach Conference, the 2018 Parish Outreach Survey, and research conducted by members of the Social Justice & Advocacy Committee. If you would like to add or amend information about your parish's outreach and advocacy activities, please contact Elin Goulden, the diocese's Social Justice and Advocacy consultant, at 416-363-6021, (toll-free 1-800-668-8932), ext. 240, or egoulden@toronto.anglican.ca. Changes will be made in the online version of this list, and in the version included in the monthly e-mail newsletter from the Social Justice and Advocacy Committee, and new information will be incorporated into next year's cycle.

This year, two or three options are offered for each week. You may choose to pray for both/all on Sunday, or to use them separately at Sunday and weekday services. You may also choose to use a slightly abbreviated form of the petitions in the Prayers of the People, and to print the fuller version in the service leaflet.
