

Listening to God in our context

Draw a mind map of your context and share it with a small group

- What are the patterns and places of physical meeting and communication?
- What are the needs and issues?
- What are the underlying values of the culture?

Mission is finding out what God is doing and joining in

Talk to each other about your experience of listening to God in your context

- Where do you sense that God might already be especially at work in your community?
- What values are there in your church or planting team which are challenged as you listen to God in your context? (What makes you uncomfortable?)
- What do you think God may be calling you to do?
- How can you discern if that call is genuine?

for discussion

Introduction

- There's not just one rural context. How would you describe the rural area you come from?
- How would you describe your church or churches?

A changing context

Among the changes in rural areas in the western world are

- From farming to commuting/tourism
- Greater mobility
- Weakening sense of village community
- More of a network society
- Consumer culture (buying into ideas and lifestyles)
- Christendom is over – Move from religion of obligation to religion of consumption

- Can you recognise this “changing context” in our area and the people you know?
- Are there identifiable groups of people who are absent from/ under-represented in your churches? Eg. social groups, interest groups, male/female, age

Inculturation

“As the Father sent me so I send you. Receive the Holy Spirit” John 20

- Starting with God
- Mission in the Power of the Spirit
- Following the pattern of Jesus – Incarnation
Dying to Live

“The change is to an outward focus: from a “come to us” approach, to a “we will go to you” attitude, embodying the gospel where people are, rather than embodying it where we are and in ways we prefer.”

MISSION SHAPED CHURCH PG 41

Discuss:

- Tell any stories you know of where the rural church has engaged in a “we will go to you” approach”
- Looking at those who are underrepresented in your churches, how could the gospel help them in their lives?
- What might an expression of church look like which met this group of people where they are at? Do any of the types of Fresh Expression listed have any resonance?
- What sacrifices might have to be made by Christians who want to build a Christian community with these people?

The need for a “Mixed Economy Church”

Mixed economy means

- Assessing the old and valuing where and for whom it works
- Investing in, creating and nurturing a diversity of the new

We believe in One – Holy – Catholic – Apostolic Church

- How well do fresh expressions and traditional forms of church you know fit these classic marks of church?
- How can you tell when a church is being born?
