

A full time Youth and Family Minister is being sought by St. Philip's on-the-hill Anglican Church in Unionville, ON, to provide engaging Christian leadership in an established position and existing program. The successful candidate will have a passion to disciple our young people, support parish families, and contribute to the broader mission of the church.

This vital historic parish is a warm, youth-positive, worshipful, and multi-ethnic community of 300 families with a mission to our growing community. We are seeking a Christian leader who is a team-player, passionate for the spiritual formation of children, youth and families, and enjoys working with young people in the context of the mission of the church. Areas of responsibility include:

- Provide, in consultation with the incumbent, pastoral care for young people and parents
- Lead youth group meetings, church school education, Vacation Bible School (VBS)camps, supporting children/youth drama program,
- Organize special events (for ex. father/daughter dance, family-friendly special services).
- Train and supervise other leaders (teachers, day camp workers, music and drama groups).
- Manage the Sunday School, Youth, Day Camp, Children's & Youth Music & Drama groups' budgets.

Knowledge of Anglican tradition is helpful, though training is available. The applicant for this full time position should have a vital Christian faith, a passion for the spiritual growth of youth and families, youth and theological training/experience, good communication in English (Mandarin/Cantonese an asset), strong planning skills, demonstrated leadership and effective interpersonal skills. Skilled in various social media platforms is an asset, for communicating children/youth ministry events. Hours are flexible. Salary negotiable. A job description is available upon request.

Resumes should be forwarded to: Ms. Katharine Crowe, parish administrator, office@spoth.ca, by May 2, 2022. For further information, see www.spoth.ca.
