

St. John the Baptist (Dixie) Anglican Church, in Mississauga, Ontario, is seeking a part-time (8 hours per week) Organist and Choir Director. The successful candidate will take leadership of the music ministry in a very friendly, inclusive, ethnically diverse congregation, playing an Allen digital organ (25 yr old but in excellent condition) and a well maintained Schindler grand piano in the sanctuary. There is also a Technics digital piano available for rehearsals. Familiarity with other instruments or ability to work with those who play them is an asset. This person will be expected to invest energy in rebuilding the music program of the congregation, which consists of four paid choir leads (SATB) and a small number of congregants. A passion for sacred music, both traditional and contemporary, excellent communication, organization and interpersonal skills are essential. Familiarity with the Anglican tradition helpful but not essential. The successful candidate will take primary responsibility for choosing hymns, anthems and service music for worship (10am Sunday mornings with other occasional services including first right of refusal for weddings and funerals). They will work collaboratively with the Incumbent Priest who has overall responsibility for the liturgy. Salary to be discussed, taking into account applicants experience and RCCO guidelines. All applications will be treated with confidentiality. Applications are to be submitted to, and further details are available from the Rev. Daniel Brereton - church@stjohnsdixie.com. 905-277-0462. Application deadline is September 22nd, 2023 or until position is filled.
