Tea with the Bishop – Turning Your Legacy into a Lasting Gift

Thursday May 30th at 1:00 pm

St. Dunstan of Canterbury Anglican Church
56 Lawson Road, Scarborough, Ontario

Join us for an enlightening afternoon at St. Dunstan of Canterbury Anglican Church in Scarborough, Ontario, as we delve into the importance of estate planning and legacy giving from a biblical perspective. Hosted by The Reverend Graham McCaffrey, with a special appearance by Bishop Andrew Asbil, this seminar will provide valuable insights and information on how you can leave a lasting impact through your legacy.

Registration begins at 1:00 p.m. and a light Luncheon will be provided at 1:30 p.m.

What we will cover:

- Reverend McCaffrey will give an Overview of the afternoon's program
- Bishop Andrew Asbil will discuss the Importance of Legacy Giving from a Biblical Perspective
- Legacy Giving Options that can Make a Difference
- The Anglican Diocese of Toronto Foundation's Impact on the Community
- An Introduction to our Free tool for the creation of your Will
- Question and Answer Session - your questions answered

Space is Limited to the First 100 Registrants
