

Cheat Sheet

Starting Something from Nothing

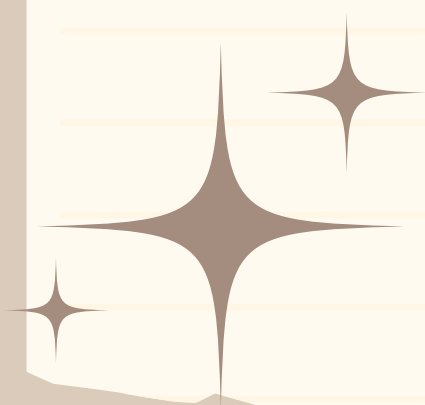

— Ask:

- Who wants to start something?
- Why do we want to start it?
- Who will be in the working crew?

— Take Inventory:

- What is inside our Parish Boundaries?
- Are we connected to any youth and families?
- What resources do we have?
- What needs could we meet?
- What needs to be cleaned?

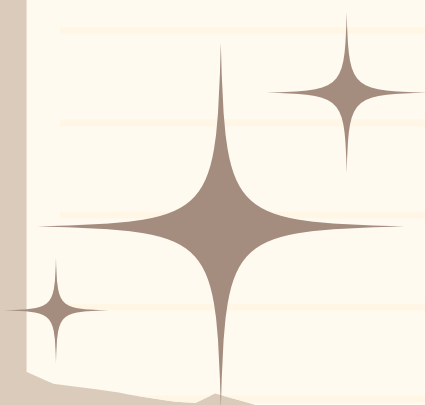

Cheat Sheet

Starting Something from Nothing

- Starting up!
- Celebrate your working crew! Often!
- Gather some things to share
- Wake up the spaces!
- Add Youth and Families to the prayers
- Sharpen your pencil crayons
- Reset your paper and sticker stash
- Call "Families at Large"
- Buy snacks and set them out
- Get outside and volunteer
- Up your profile and increase neighbourhood good will

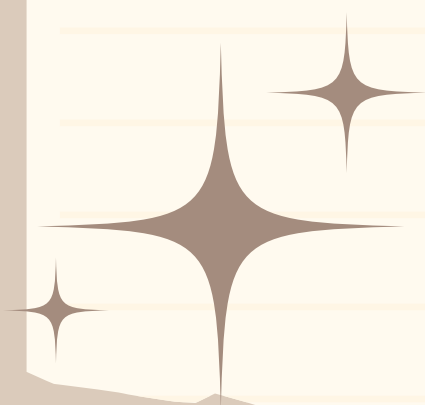

Cheat Sheet

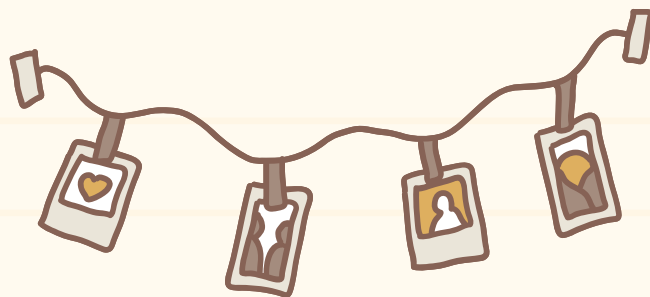

Starting Something from Nothing

- Ideas to Keep Building On
- Thank your volunteers again!
- Colouring Clipboards and fidgets for all
- Plan a good will building event
- Feed your neighbourhood
- Show up to celebrate kids and youth
- Have a "praying posse"
- Believe in the power of pizza
- Build an outdoor prayer request box
- Make a "Birthday List" and celebrate!
- Update your bulletin boards often
- Start sharing kids art and photos

Cheat Sheet

Starting Something from Nothing

— Spiritual Growth

- Pray with your volunteers often
- Communicate with the neighbourhood about the sacraments that you offer
- Don't sleep on Christmas and Easter
- Share gratitude about new ministry
- Keep Praying for guidance
- Pray for the young people every day
- Connect with grandparents
- Talk about the Love of God, always
- Trust that the Good News is good!
- Be Steady. Be Patient. Trust God.

